EX-PRESIDENT KRUGER DEAD

FORMER LEADER OF BOERS
PASSES AWAY

Had Been Unconscious Since
Monday—Remains May Be Taken to Transvaal—Expressions of Regret Everywhere.

Clarens, Switzerland, July 14.—Paul Kruger, former president of the Transvaal republic, died here this morning of pneumonia and supervening heart weakness. He lost consciousness Monday. An operation will be made to transport the remains to the Transvaal.

Paris, July 14.—The death of Kruger aroused widespread regret here owing to French sympathy with the Boer cause and personal admiration of the ex-president.

London, July 14.—Announcement of Kruger's death was the main feature of 11 afternoon papers here and it was accompanied by lengthy sketches of his career. All papers devoted editorials to the former president's demise, refraining from anything denunciatory and speaking generously of his remarkable character.

Pretoria, Transvaal, July 14.—Flags on all government buildings are at half-mast in honor of Kruger. He will be buried beside the former presidents of the Transvaal unless his will has provided otherwise. General Botha has ordered the Boers to wear mourning until after the funeral, which, it is expected, will be attended by representatives of every district of the Transvaal.

Rome, July 14.—All newspapers contain sympathetic reference to the death of former President Kruger, calling him the personification of the Boer ideal and expressing regret he should die "a man without a country."

SKETCH OF KRUGER'S LIFE.
Stephanus Johannes Paulus Kruger was born in Cape Colony in 1825. With his father and family he took part in the great trek of 1834-35. This was an exodus of more than 6,000 Boers from Cape Colony after that country had been conquered by the British.

In despair of living where they were, in constant jeopardy from the natives, and, as they claimed, persecuted by the English, these Dutch and Huguenot farmers resolved to abandon their homes and establish a new colony in the interior of Africa.

Those who made this memorable exodus transmitted to their descendants bitter memories of much suffering from hunger, thirst and peril from wild beasts, and still more merciless savages, who again and again massacred men, women and children. Driven north from their hiding places in the Orange Free State and in Natal, it was not until they reached the far country of the Transvaal that they found an abiding place at the cost of wresting the land from the savage Zulu.

This was the stern school in which Paul Kruger was educated. He was born a fighter and used bow and arrow while yet too young to be trusted with a gun. When a boy he was famous for his courage, his skill with the rifle, his long-headedness and confidence in himself. A crack shot when he was barely in his teens, he took part in the fierce battles with the Matabeles, when the Boers in the great trek defeated Mosilikatze, father of Lobengula, and drove him and his warriors from the Limpopo river. He distinguished himself in many native wars; at 17 was a field cornet; at 20, a district commandant, and for years was the commander-in-chief of the army as well as the head of the civil government.

Oom Paul was a man of great kindness of nature, yet there was in his make-up an insurmountable obstinacy which made the Boer war the long drawn-out struggle which it proved to be. Time and again when British victories were scored the other leaders of forlorn South African hope would willingly have given up and surrendered to the inevitable, but Kruger on each occasion protested, and the result was that the miserable war, which had degenerated into guerrilla fighting by the burghers, continued. Finally, beaten, homeless and heart-broken, the Boers laid down their arms, even then in direct opposition to the wishes of this old man, who had from afar kept the war spirit alive when all hope was dead.

Kruger was heart-broken at the loss of his country and with the end of the war began rapidly to fall and with the exception of a few reappearances of the old lion-like spirit the remainder of his life was spent in continual sorrow and longing for what might have been.

JEWS ARE COMING

Plans Being Made to Bring
50,000 to the United States.

Berlin, July 14.—It is said that influential Jews here and in other cities are systematically organizing the emigration of Jews from Russia to America. The present emigration is not in accordance with a fixed plan, but the Jews as a general thing drift here and are then sent on.

The plan is to divert the trend of all Jews to America. It is expected that inside of one year, assuming the present rate of immigration continues, 50,000 Jews will have arrived in America.

Those in charge of the project plan to apportion this number as follows: At Chicago, 8,000; at St. Louis, 6,000; at Pittsburgh, 3,000; at Cleveland, 2,000; at Cincinnati, 2,000; at Baltimore, 2,000; at Buffalo, 2,000; Texas, 6,000; California, 8,000; and in South America, 10,000.

It is doubtful if the bulk of the Jews will be willing to concede to this plan, as most of them are convinced that it is New York alone that is paved with gold.

BURGLAR KILLED.

Philadelphia, July 14.—One burglar was killed, another surrendered, a third escaped and an 11-year-old boy was wounded in the back late to night as a result of an attempt the three men made to rob the house of Harry Miller, Frank Robinson, one of the burglars, was killed by a policeman who entered the house after the thieves were discovered there and Harry Smith, another burglar, was shot after he ran out by citizens who had assembled. He received a slight wound during the fusillade.

EMPLOYEES ARRESTED

Accused of Conspiracy to Defraud the St. Louis Exposition.

St. Louis, July 14.—Four employees of the admissions department of the world's fair were arrested and held pending investigation on what is believed a conspiracy to rob by ticket irregularities.

From what can be learned of results of the investigation thus far indications are a large number of employees of the division of admission have been in a conspiracy to defraud the exposition company and a large sum of money was secured by second sale of genuine admission cards and counterfeit tickets.

Washington, July 14.—The postoffice department to day announced the abolishment of the Omaha division of the rural free delivery service, whose territory will be divided among the St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Paul divisions, effective July 20. FAIL TO REACH AGREEMENT

PACKING HOUSE STRIKE
STILL ON

Packers Refuse to Arbitrate on Terms Proposed by Union—
Strikers Decline to Accept Counter Proposition.

Chicago, July 14.—At a conference this afternoon between representatives of packers and union officials the packers refused to arbitrate on terms proposed by the union and instead submitted a counter proposition by the terms of which the packers agree to take the strikers back at wages before the strike. The packers also propose to resign all help employed since the strike was inaugurated. The reply was taken under consideration by the executive committee of the union.

The demands made by the union which packers declined were: All strikers be re-employed with three days; the same wages as prevailed before strike pending arbitration; award made by arbitrators to take effect from time of resuming work, but award shall not involve any reduction of wages.

President Donnelly stated to night the proposition of the packers will be rejected and that he will in turn present a counter proposition to morrow. The litch in negotiations is over resumption of strikers.

RIOTING BEGUN.

Rioting commenced in the stock yards to night and one man, Alfonso Andrulla, was shot in the left shoulder by police, though not fatally injured. One of a crowd of strikers threw a stone at the police and was immediately arrested. The man's companions attacked the police with stones, when the officers fired into the crowd. Andrulla fell and his companions fled. He and the man first arrested were taken to the police station, which in a few minutes was surrounded by several hundred men, women and boys. The temper of the crowd was ugly and for a time it looked as though they would storm the station. Reinforcements were summoned and several patrol wagons filled with officers from other stations came upon the scene. The crowd refused to give way and the officers were compelled to fight their way through to the station doors. A line of officers was drawn up in front of the station and after a short time the crowd dispersed.

Another fight occurred at Marshallfield avenue and Forty-fifth street, where a mob attacked a squad of policemen with bricks. Several officers were injured slightly and they were compelled to disperse the crowd with their clubs. Several other fights took place during the evening, but nobody was seriously hurt.

St. Paul, July 14.—Between one hundred and two hundred men were smuggled into the Swift plant at South St. Paul before daybreak this morning and to day about 15 per cent of an ordinary day's work was done.

During the riot the following officers were injured: Detective Rearden, jaw fractured by a brick; Sergeant Bohlen, chin deeply cut by stone; Policeman John Flynn, tendons of left foot cut by a stone.

Omaha, July 14.—Some slaughtering is being done at all South Omaha packing houses, where about 135 men are at work. The strikers are conducting themselves in an orderly manner, most of them remaining at home.

Car repairs who struck yesterday were to day ordered back by their union, Kansas City, July 14.—Four of the six local plants resumed killing to day on a limited scale. Two hundred boxmakers, coopers and laborers went out to day and union officials say 1,000 men have joined the strikers in the past forty-eight hours.

CLEVELAND'S AILMENT.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., July 14.—It was definitely stated to day that while former President Cleveland has been indisposed the trouble is nothing save an attack similar to others experienced in the summer.

RUSSIANS JOYFUL

Continue to Derive Comfort
From Reported Disaster to Japanese Army.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—The general staff, although it has no further news of the reported Japanese disaster at Port Arthur, points out it is significant if the report is untrue that no denial has been issued from Tokyo. An officer just returned from the front said to the Associated Press the terrible losses reported are not unlikely in view of the extraordinary and almost fanatical determination of the Japanese.

Under yesterday's date the correspondent of the Associated Press at Russian headquarters at Liao Yang, whose telegrams heretofore have been conservative and reliable, announces reception there of a "joyful news," the brilliant repulse of a Japanese assault on Port Arthur with the loss of 30,000 men. The correspondent says whole masses of the enemy were blown up with mines, and adds the Russian losses were 1,800 and Major General Pock pursued the Japanese to Nagan pass. It is possible the correspondent confused Pock's pursuit with the attack made by him July 5 on the Japanese right, when he is reported to have driven back the enemy to Nagan pass.

The people of St. Petersburg retired to night in a happy frame of mind. Absence of a dispatch from Lieutenant General Stoessel, commanding the military forces at Port Arthur, regarding the reported disaster to the Japanese Sunday, is generally attributed to delay in communicating official news.

Private dispatches received in St. Petersburg from Russian sources in the far east confirm the reports from Mukden and Cheloo. According to an usually reliable source, Japanese losses were 2,800 and Russian 1,800.

The city remains in a ferment of excitement and extras are eagerly bought up in hope of finding the long-expected dispatch from Stoessel. It was only late to night that a dispatch arrived which, had it become generally known, would have tended somewhat to dampen enthusiasm. This was a dispatch from Ta Tehe Kiao, communicating an undated dispatch from Port Arthur, received there July 13. It did not mention the assault or repulse, but it is quite possible the dispatch was sent from Port Arthur earlier than July 13, so that it cannot be fairly regarded as contradictory evidence.

It is quite certain up to this date there is no disposition in any quarter in St. Petersburg to question truth of the news. There is general conviction that if Alexander decided to communicate the report to the general staff it must be true.

News that the Vladivostok cruisers and torpedo boats were out again, filled the Russian cup of joy to overflowing.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—A telegram from Lieutenant General Sakharoff reviewing the situation yesterday notes continued Japanese advance on Ta Tehe Kiao and continuous fighting along the Su Yen roads converging on Tung Chi, ten miles southeast of Ta Tehe Kiao. Russian outposts apparently were not offering serious resistance on either of the Su Yen roads or along the line of Oku's advance. Sakharoff also reports appearance of Kuroki's outposts considerably south of Liao Yang and there is indication of a general flanking movement on Hai Cheng.

Ta Tehe Kiao, July 13.—It was expected that the Japanese would attack this morning. Russian guns were heard to the east of Ta Tehe Kiao at 6 a. m. The Japanese did not reply. Intelligence brought in by scouts is that the Japanese are retreating to the mountains and moving northeast in the direction of Hai Cheng and further north.

A Japanese officer who was taken prisoner had dispatches showing that in the battle of July 4 the Japanese lost over seven hundred.

Ta Tehe Kiao, July 11.—(Delayed by Military Censor)—The Russian retreat from Kai Chou with a loss of only a hundred men and inflicting of heavy losses on the Japanese was a brilliant feat, of which Kurapatkin marked his appreciation by conferring decorations on every officer present. Dawn of July 9 revealed the Japanese in such force it was necessary to withdraw. The retreat was carried out in the face of tremendous difficulties.

Only the road north, swept by Japanese batteries and barred by a conspicuous gate, could be used. Russian batteries, cleverly masked, disturbed the Japanese gunners and the bulk of their projectiles fell short. The bombardment lasted many hours. There was a critical moment when the commissariat wagons had to pass the exposed narrow gateway. The Japanese tried to take advantage of the situation and repeatedly attacked the Russian flank, but were beaten off.

The Japanese began to press the rear guard. Krause posted his battery near the gateway and fired five hundred rounds with terrific effect upon the advancing masses. The Japanese gunners finally found the range and the Russian guns were then removed. Two companies still remaining at Kai Chou had to fight their way north with bayonets.

Chefoo, July 14.—A report was received the China Mining and Engineering company's steamer Haehing, from Shanghai July 8, was captured by Japanese north of Chefoo this morning loaded with contraband of war.

VISITORS TO JUDGE PARKER

COCKIRAN, BELMONT AND
RHODY AT ESOPUS

Came on Invitation of Candidate
—Friends From Kingston
Celebrate Parker's Nomination and Give Him an Ovation.

Esopus, N. Y., July 14.—Congressman Bourke Cockran, August Belmont and William R. Rhody of the Democratic state committee arrived at Rosemont to day. They all said they came on invitation of Parker and did not know the subject of the conference or how long they would stay. In reply to the question if he would take the stump for Parker, Cockran said: "Is it necessary to ask that?"

Letters were received by Parker to day from parents who named newly born children "Alton" or "Parker," or both. There was one from Decatur, Ill.

Six car loads of enthusiastic friends of Judge Parker came down from Kingston on a special train to night to celebrate the judge's nomination. Most of those who came were Democrats, but there were not a few old Republican friends of the judge, and the celebration was designated to be nonpartisan in character.

The visitors marched to Rosemont and gave Parker a rousing ovation. A speech in behalf of the visitors was made by former Senator Landon, of Kingston. He said the citizens of Ulster county "admire a man who sees the right, and seeing darts to do it. It is for that reason, as well as the respect and affection for yourself personally, that this assemblage of your neighbors has gathered to night to do honor to you to whom has come a distinction that one in millions can attain."

"It is related of a great Republican leader now deceased that when an opponent in the house of representatives had shouted to the chair, 'Mr. Speaker, in the words of Henry Clay, I had rather be right than be president,' he retorted with sarcasm, 'Don't be afraid, you'll never be either.'"

"Since the glorious sunburst of the fatal Saturday when the telegraph flashed from Esopus to St. Louis your words that have become history, it may be demonstrated that a man can be right and be president, too."

Landon concluded by congratulating Parker and assuring him that whether he occupied the white house or remained at Rosemont he would "occupy the same position in the hearts of those who know you best."

Parker replying spoke of the long friendship between his neighbors and himself—a friendship extending over a quarter of a century. He expressed his gratitude to those who had gone all the way from Ulster county to St. Louis to say kind words in his behalf.

The conference between Judge Parker and Senator McCarroll to day lasted nearly an hour, and from what was learned afterwards there is a strong impression here Sheehan is no longer to be thought of in connection with the Democratic national chairmanship.

TALKS OF PLATFORM

Another Statement Made by W.
J. Bryan, Ex-Leader of Democrats.

Lincoln, Neb., July 14.—W. J. Bryan to day made public a statement relating to the Democratic national platform. The plank on imperialism, he said, is positive, strong and satisfactory to the entire party and this question becomes the paramount issue of the campaign.

The tariff plank is good, but it was made so on a close vote in committee and largely against the opposition of Parker's adherents.

The anti-trust plank is a good one. It demands enforcement of the original clause of the criminal law against trusts; abolition of rebates and discriminations and withdrawal of interstate commerce privileges from trusts when once convicted.

Bryan pronounced the labor plank all that could be desired. "On the whole," says Bryan, "the platform is good. From a western standpoint its greatest defect is that it makes no mention of the money question." He concludes as follows: "While the motion to reaffirm the Kansas City platform was voted down, there was a considerable vote in favor of its reaffirmation, and western members of the committee, together with a few from the south, stood together and secured enough changes in the platform to make it a presentable document and worthy of the support of the party."

CLEAR LAKE FARM

An Interesting Letter From the Jacksonville Sojourners.

July 12, 1904.

Dear Journal: This is our fifth day here and every hour has been full of enjoyment. No one could help getting all the happiness allotted to resort life here at Clear Lake farm. We arrived Thursday evening at 5:30 on a fast Michigan Central train out of Chicago and after informally meeting the guests took up our abode in a cottage near the main building, which is built on a high bluff about one hundred feet above the level of the lake, which lies in full view from a big porch running around the east and south sides of the house. Friday was spent in trying to inspect the entire farm, but there being some four hundred acres, including the lake—a beautiful body of water about a mile long by a half mile wide, and filled with black bass, blue gills, yellow perch and pickerel—we contented ourselves with boating, bathing and fishing; Alderman Johnson and myself with rod and line, Arthur Carriel and the boys on the bathing beach, while Jack Johnson refused to go near the water. However, we persuaded him that the steel boats were unsinkable, being provided with air chambers at either end, and the next day found him bravely trying to row a boat (close to shore). There is a tradition that the lake is bottomless, an attempt to reach its depths having been unsuccessful with a 300-foot line. There is no visible outlet and the water is free from grasses or undergrowth and fishing is good anywhere.

By invitation, we went into Buchanan Sunday morning, a four-mile drive over gravel roads, and played in the Presbyterian church, and again at the M. E. church in the evening. Mrs. Johnson singing with organ and orchestra at each service. A cordial invitation to take part in next Sunday's services was extended to us by the pastors of both churches, so I presume they were pleased with our music.

Last evening there was a party of ladies out from Buchanan. They call themselves the "Happy-Go-Lucky Club," and they are surely a jolly bunch. There were seventeen of them, coming out in a carryall. A splendid supper was spread, after which we gave a short recital, during which a severe thunderstorm broke over us. The storm raged until bedtime and the "Happy-Go-Lucky" were obliged to take possession of a cottage and bunk for the night.

Landlord Cook is planning a big reception and ball on Friday of this week, and some two hundred invitations have been sent to various points, mainly to Buchanan and Chicago friends. The large dining room with its hardwood floor, a room large enough to accommodate nearly one hundred at a meal, will be given over to dancing, while the immense porch, lighted as is the entire floor, by a new lighting plant just put in, will be used for cards and promenading, while the spacious lawn facing the lake is well provided with swings, rustic rockers and hammocks.

The first supper bell has just rung and as the captain of the kitchen is an artist in his line we are all ready to answer the summons to meals without delay. I believe that one would look a long time before finding a more delightful place to spend a few weeks of the summer. The society is above question, the location is perfect, accommodations to suit the most fastidious, the fruit abundant and the fishing, boating and bathing all that could be desired. We are staying a week or so longer and will find it hard to leave when the time comes to go. Now for supper. Yours, etc., C. C. Jeffries.

Mrs. N. B. Duke, who carries $250,000 worth of life insurance, is said to be the most heavily insured woman in the country.

Pretty women always have everything their own way. How can you blame the plainer ones for wanting to be lovely?

It is a comfort to be old enough to understand that those pleasures that cost the most are not always the most pleasurable.

If we had to pay real money to see the stars and the trees and the sunsets, what a lot of fuss we'd make about their loveliness.

A Boston millionaire of 64 years has married his third girl. He is a good cook and he seems determined to keep her at all hazards.

All the paraphernalia of a civil engineer isn't in it with the strong arm of a young man when it comes to locating the girl's waist line.

The good old fashioned hammock is getting to be a thing of the past, as the new fangled lawn swings are rapidly becoming very popular.

Many a woman who poses as a Christian lies awake nights trying to connect a scheme to get her neighbor's hired girl away from her.

The average woman pities all men; the bachelors because they aren't married, and the married men because they have the kind of wives they have.

HALF APPLE CROP FOR ILLINOIS.

The bright prospects for a good crop of apples at the opening of the present season caused a general confidence that there would be almost a year of jubilee among the apple growers. Not for many years was there such a good setting of buds; the year of the great bumper crop, 1896, did not compare with it. It unfortunately happened, however, that the bloom came in a period of cold, rainy days, and under such conditions development was prevented. With information received from many trustworthy sources, there will be large yields of apples in some orchards and comparatively none in others, and it can be safely estimated that the average yield will be less than one-half crop, and even this condition may have to be moderated before harvest time. There has, however, been a large number of apple trees planted in middle states during the last few years, and thousands of acres of young orchards will come into bearing this season, hence, should the yield be even one-half a crop in Illinois, there will be an abundance for home use and foreign shipments.

ABSENT FROM CITY SINCE THE FOURTH

Relative of Thomas Cosgriff Unable to Find Any Trace of Him—Was Seen Near Murrayville.

Thomas Cosgriff, who has been living with his mother, Mrs. Mary Cosgriff on East Court street, has been missing from his home since the evening of July 4th, and efforts are being made to locate him. For some years he has been in a barely accountable mental condition, and as he is known to have had no money when he left, his mother is in considerable anxiety as to his whereabouts.

Mr. Cosgriff has for about ten years been mentally afflicted, though he was never violent. His affliction is the result of over-study while in school. Upon his leaving school ten years ago it was found to be necessary to confine him, and three years ago he was recommitted, and was cared for at Central hospital for some time, though he was not confined on a ward. Since that time he has lived at home with his mother and has caused no trouble whatever.

Since Christmas he had appeared to feel somewhat, and showed no desire to work or occupy himself in any way. On the Fourth he was annoyed and excited by the noise, and this, his mother believes, was the cause of his leaving. He was at home for supper but contrary to his usual custom, ate very little. He started toward the square, and did not return. The next day he was seen at Murrayville by Mrs. James Beguel and Miss Maggie Conlan. Mrs. Beguel supposed that he would stop as he had frequently visited there. He passed on, however, and has not been heard from since.

Mr. Cosgriff is 32 years old, six feet two inches tall, has light hair, light complexion, and blue eyes. A front tooth is missing from the upper left jaw. His weight is about 160 or 170 pounds. He has frequently been away from home before, but never for so long a time, and heretofore he was always supplied with money, whereas he left this time without a penny. It is thought that he started for St. Louis, as he had been heard to express the desire that he might go there to live. His mother would be very grateful for any news as to his whereabouts.

TREAT YOUR KIDNEYS FOR RHEUMATISM.

When you are suffering from rheumatism the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy for this purpose. R. T. Hopkins, of Polar, Wis., says: "After unsuccessfully doctoring three years for rheumatism with the best doctors, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine." Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

Said coal to be delivered in coal houses of said hospital at such time and in such quantities as may be required by the superintendent of said hospital. A CLOVER WEDDING.

One of the prettiest weddings in the history of Franklin occurred Tuesday evening, July 12, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. T. Stewart, when the marriage of their eldest daughter, Inez Ewing, to Mr. Francis Edwin Smith was solemnized.

At 8 o'clock, to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Vera Stewart, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the front parlor, the groom entering the west door, followed by the minister, while the bride, upon the arm of her father, entered the south door, ushered by Miss Hazel Stewart. The groom was attired in the regulation suit of black. The bride was becomingly arrayed in a gown of white Persian lawn, trimmed with oriental lace.

Rev. R. E. Hieronymus, president of Eureka college, from which both the bride and groom graduated the 16th of last June, pronounced the words which made them one, using the ring ceremony, which he made unusually beautiful and impressive.

After the ceremony the guests, numbering about forty, repaired to the dining room, where the wedding supper was served.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants and red clover blossoms, the latter being a favorite to both bride and groom, recalling pleasant memories and bearing peculiar significance to them.

Dainty souvenirs of double hearts, hand painted with clover blossoms, were given each guest, with a piece of the wedding cake tied with green ribbon.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith, of Tiskilwa, Ill., and is a man of many sterling qualities, being a minister of the gospel.

The bride is one of the most highly respected young ladies of this community, where she was born and reared. Before entering Eureka college she graduated from the high school here, where she won many laurels, always excelling in whatever she undertook. Nor was her career different after entering college. Having a fine mind and a will which knew no obstacle she was never outstripped in anything, and has come forth well equipped for the battle of life and a fitting helpmeet for him who has chosen her for his life companion.

The following morning the young couple, amidst a shower of rice, left for Delevan, Ill., where they will make their home until Sept. 1, at which time they expect to enter Chicago University.

The guests from out of town were President R. E. Hieronymus and Mrs. J. L. MacBean, of Eureka; J. L. and J. B. Sears, of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. William G. Russell and family, of Woodson, and Mrs. Harriet Clarke, of Kansas City.

A Guest.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

PATENT MEDICINES.

A man that compounds or invents something that is just a little better than the next best thing, is certainly entitled to the best share of the profits to be derived from the sale of the article. So he patents or copyrights to protect his interests. Patented goods are good goods; poor goods are never patented. We have 20 years of trial behind us to give us the assurance that we have the best medicine compounded for the cure of dyspepsia; sick-headache, biliousness, indigestion, and all stomach disorders. We protect the public as well as ourselves by keeping the formula a secret, as long as we make it we know it is made right and it cures these diseases. Druggists tell us that it is the one medicine that the sale is ever on the increase. To get the best remedy for dyspepsia or indigestion ask the druggists for Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, price 25c per box, only one for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allcott.

It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. For sale by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuelli, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. ARMSTRONG & ARMSTRONG, Special Agents.

It is Not Always June

The man who said "In time of peace prepare for war" was a shrewd business manager. No better time in the whole year than to day to fill your bin with "Ideal" coal. These hot, sweltering days are reminders of the zero weather that's due here later on—and, confidentially, Ideal coal is a mighty good investment at present prices. While we ourselves might quite naturally be prejudiced about Ideal coal, we don't ask you to trust our judgment. The hundreds who have used it in Jacksonville, and will now so no other, declare it to be the hottest, purest, most dependable softcoal that ever left the mine. We guarantee it. We know it will suit you to perfection. We know you'll thank your starnest winter for having filled your bin right now. 11c per bushel or $2.75 per ton cash for July delivery. Let us have your order today.

HAS MADE SUCCESS.

The Woman's Herald, one of the three publications issued by the Butterick Publishing and Advertising company of New York and Chicago, devoted the June issue to "biographical sketches of the men who carry out the Butterick idea."

Mr. Harry N. Kirby, formerly of this city, is one of the western representatives of this firm and the June Herald has a half-tone cut of Mr. Kirby, together with a biographical sketch. The article speaks in the most complimentary terms of the work done by him and in the concluding paragraph the writer says: "Given the needed chance he rapidly qualified himself as an assistant representative of the western office of the firm, and has justified the expectations held for him by those who introduced him to the advertising world. His efforts have developed a large number of new and successful advertisers in his territory, who look to his experience and ability as a guide of great value in the development of their advertising enterprises."

LITCHFIELD SHOPS MOVED.

Since the purchase of the J. & St. L. by the Burlington the shops at Litchfield have been of no use and a few days ago workmen commenced to demolish the buildings and send the machinery to Beardstown. The only building left is the round house. John Foulk, who was superintendent of the shops, resigned his position with the road recently.

The last of the shops passed through this city yesterday loaded on the wrecking train. As may be seen from the above Jacksonville is not the only city to be affected by the recent merger of the J. & St. L. and the Q. Having lost the general offices here we can sympathize with Litchfield in her loss.

JAPAN IN VICTORY

A. Maurice Low, in the July-September Forum, says: "Japan has shown that she possesses all the qualities that together form the sum of national greatness; she has exhibited them in such a marked degree that she has won the world's admiration, the admiration even of her political opponents. She has displayed the qualities of courage, patriotism, far-seeing intelligence; the Japanese are a military as well as a commercial people; on sea as well as on land they have shown themselves masters of their craft. Now, a nation so richly endowed as this is no more to be destroyed by defeat (if defeat comes) by preponderating force than land can be rendered sterile because a growing crop has been laid low under the merciless attack of hail, rain and scorching sun. It is within the range of possibilities that Japan may meet with reverses, that in the course of her triumphant progress there may come a time when she can make no further headway, and the result may be a stalemate. Even so, if the worst befalls and she must sue for peace, her defeat will no more mean her political effacement than the entry of the German troops into Paris in 1871 stilled the voice of France in the council of nations.

"There is only one phase of the character of the Japanese of which we know nothing. We should like to know if they can be as absolute in defeat as they have shown themselves restrained in victory. So far, the reports of the Japanese naval and military commanders have been models of modest brevity. Facts have been stated in the most concise terms, and deeds of rare heroism have been recorded in language so terse that it almost seemed as if Japan alone of all the world were unimpressed by the devotion and courage of her defenders. We know, however, that the Japanese are wanting in neither imagination nor feeling; but their emotions do not easily arise to the surface, and they glory in their self-control. The history of the world has shown that the Asiatic has never been able to stand up under severe punishment. Defeat destroys his morale, and with the fatalism inseparable from his character he bows his head to the inevitable and waits in stolid hopefulness until Kismet shall once more revolve the wheel in his direction. But the Japanese are the paradox of Asia; of all the Asiatics they are the least Asiatic. I have always been impressed by the fact that the accident of geography has had a tremendous influence upon the Japanese character, and that it is because they are an island people that they are to day disproving all the world's preconceived theories. For the Japanese are in all Asia the one island nation, and the profound mystery of the sea is never more profoundly revealed than in the unconscious effect it has on the character and moral fibre of a people whose very blood runs more quickly because the salt of the seas is in their veins and their faces have been washed by the spume of ocean."

ALL DAY PICNIC.

Company L and their friends enjoyed an all day picnic Thursday at the West Side park. A large crowd was in attendance and fully enjoyed the many good things prepared by the committee. Dancing was enjoyed during the day and many other pleasurable features made the momentous day. Altogether it was a very successful affair.

MEETING WILL BE IN SPRINGFIELD

Idea of Two Senatorial Conventions Abandoned—Agreement Reached Between Members of Committee Thursday Afternoon.

Complications arose Wednesday over the calling of the Republican senatorial convention for the forty-fifth district, comprising Morgan and Sangamon counties. The fact that two sets of delegates were selected at the Yates and Hamilton primaries held a number of weeks ago in Sangamon county made it advisable to postpone calling the convention until some agreement had been reached in the matter. Members of the committee are H. W. Butler, chairman; O. G. Addelman, Henry Garvey, Fred Overstreet and John Junceman, of Sangamon county and Andrew Russell, John R. Robertson and James H. Damskin, of Morgan county. S. B. Stewart of this city was secretary of the old committee and the local members of the committee with John Junceman, of Springfield, who also had the proxy of Overstreet, met in this city recently and made a request upon Mr. Stewart to call the committee together for a meeting to be held in this city July 15, at the court house.

Acting on the request of the majority of the committee Mr. Stewart sent out notices Tuesday calling the meeting for July 15. When the chairman, Mr. Butler, of Springfield, received this notice he immediately issued a call for a meeting of the committee for the same date and hour, naming the Leland hotel in Springfield as the place. It looked very much as though there would be two meetings of the same committee held which would result in the calling of two senatorial conventions. This fact was apparent to the members of both factions represented on the committee and by means of telephone communications it was finally agreed between the members to give up the Jacksonville meeting. This agreement was reached Tuesday afternoon and S. B. Stewart of this city will go to Springfield with the proxies of the other Morgan county members of the committee and will meet with the Springfield members at the Leland hotel to day.

The purpose of the committee is to fix a date for the senatorial convention and to fix the representation on the ticket as between the two counties. So far as is known there will be no candidates for member of the legislature from Morgan county and it will probably be arranged by common consent to allow Sangamon county to name two candidates. The members of the committee are divided along the lines of Yates and anti-Yates factions but the former have a clear majority.

INSANE PATIENTS RETURNED

Sheriff Dickerson has been notified by the officers of the Central Illinois hospital at Jacksonville that Macoupin county's quota at that institution is over-taken and five patients were brought back to the county's institution. Those returned are William Shellenburger, of Brighton; Henry Scherke, of Mt. Olive; Jacob E. Hall, of Chesterfield, and John M. Robinson and John Burns. There are about 1,300 patients in the institution and Macoupin's portion is about seventy.—Carlinville Democrat.

Sheriff Dickerson and a deputy were in the city Thursday and returned on the 2:55 train with seven patients from Macoupin county, who will be cared for by the county authorities.

Mr. Kitzmiller has been in ill health for some years, and has shown signs of insanity on previous occasions, but his many friends hoped his health was improving. He represented Macoupin county in the legislature some years ago and was a most popular and genial gentleman. Two years ago he located in Dakota, and was recently nominated by the Republicans of his county for state's attorney. Under proper treatment it is believed his reason will be restored.

SURPRISE ROBERT HARSHAW.

Robert Harshaw entertained about twenty friends Thursday evening at his home, 500 Duncan street, in honor of his fifty-first birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent by the guests and the occasion was also much enjoyed by the amiable host, who received many warm congratulations and sincere wishes for many happy returns of the day. Light refreshments were served.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Chinese Animal Fable.

Once upon a time a careless monkey, who had climbed down from the tree tops, was caught by a tiger. The little fellow had his wits about him and, without attempting to move, said, "I am not fit to make a good meal for you, and if you will let me go I will guide you to a hillside where I just saw a fine, large animal feeding."

The tiger deliberated a minute and, as the monkey looked small and poor, decided to accept the offer. His little companion led the way through the bushes until they reached a hill where a rough coated donkey was feeding. The tiger had never seen such an animal before, and his eyes shone with delight when he thought what a fine meal he would make. He was just crouching for a spring when the donkey said:

"My dear monkey, why have you brought me only one tiger? You have always succeeded in bringing two or three before."

Frightened at these ominous words, the tiger turned tail and ran for his life.

Thus a quick wit may often deliver a man out of great danger.

An Interesting Game.

Any number of persons may play this game. It requires no preparation, but the wits of the players must be bright and alert to make it a success.

The leader asks each player in turn what he planted in his garden, and the player may name any article he chooses, but the thing that "came up" must be some plant that has a connection with the article. The answers cannot therefore always be given instantly, as a little thought may be necessary to make the answer good. That, however, will make the game all the more entertaining.

Here are a few answers that show how the game should be played:

"I planted some steps and they came up hops."

"I planted a ball and it came up rubber paint."

"I planted a calendar and it came up dates."

"I planted a watch and it came up a four o'clock."

"I planted a ship and it came up in dock."

Good Indian Costume.

A tiptop Indian costume can be made as follows:

Take eight or ten yards of ordinary brown dress lining.

Using a pair of trousers and a shirt as your pattern, cut out trousers and shirt.

Make the trousers fairly snug fitting and fasten down the outside seam of each leg a fringe of the brown lining.

Then make a plain shirt, either without sleeves or with sleeves, something like those in a bathing suit. This is worn over the trousers.

Next get a lot of chicken feathers and glue them to a long strip of the lining. Fasten one end to a helmet made of pasteboard or canvas and covered with the lining. This tail of feathers should reach from the head to the ground.

For the feet buy a pair of Indian moccasins, if you can.

IMPORTANT DECISION

The Court Says the Board of Education Will Not Have to Pay for Vacated Street.

For several days a severe legal battle has been in progress in the circuit court of this county with Judge Thompson on the bench. The contest has been over the question of collecting payment for the street vacated by the city council for the purpose of the high school building. As the Journal understands the matter, the Board of Education, through the action of the city council, appropriated a part of the thoroughfare north of the site of the former high school premises for the purposes of the present structure. The heirs of the person who originally donated the land to the city brought suit on the ground that the terms of the deed recited the stipulation that whenever the land in question was used for any other purpose than a street it should revert to the heirs of the donor. Judge E. P. Kirby and W. T. Wilson were attorneys for the complainants and for the defense Judge M. T. Layman and H. M. Ticknor appeared. The fight was a stubborn one, each side contesting every inch of ground and the defense feel much pleased with the verdict.

ADVERTISEMENT OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Lot one (1) in Chambers' first addition to the town (now city) of Jacksonville, in Morgan county, Ill., on the following terms, to wit: Cash in hand upon the tender of a proper executor's deed; the purchaser to assume the tax of 1904 payable in 1905, and to have possession of the property on Aug. 17, 1904.

Dated this 21st day of June, A. D. 1904.

PICNIC AT NICHOLS PARK.

The Brooklyn M. E. Sunday school held their first annual picnic at Nichols park Wednesday. They gathered at 10 o'clock and drove out to the park in hay wagons and upon their arrival enjoyed a picnic dinner.

The afternoon was spent in a most pleasant manner with boating, swinging and many other pastimes, which made the hours pass all too quickly. There were about 100 who enjoyed the occasion and all said they had had the best time of their lives. They returned to the city about 7:30, happy but fairly exhausted by the pleasures of the day.

The picnic was a grand success in every particular and the management has every reason to be proud of it.

All who do not attend any Sunday school, whether young or old, are cordially invited to attend Brooklyn M. E. Sunday school.

GOLF NOTES

J. E. T. Rutter, president of the C. I. G. A.; also A. Campbell Brown and Rev. Alexander Allen, all of Springfield, were guests at the Country club Thursday afternoon. President Rutter had intended remaining here until after the meet, but business matters have called him west. He will return here, however, Monday morning. The Springfield players engaged in social matches with some of the local golfers and expressed themselves as delighted with the course.

The "wire fence bunker" seems to be the bone of contention, and at first does not make a favorable impression upon the visitor. The local committee have not decided whether they will remove it or not.

The qualifying rounds for team places still continue, with the result in doubt. However, Saturday will bring to a close the play and then the final reckoning will be made.

As there are ten trophies to be won during the meet—besides the trophies played for by the team—the local players that do not make the team need not be discouraged, as they are all eligible to play for the cups and medals and should land a few of these much coveted prizes.

Speaking of the local course, it might be well to say that the local committee has been hard at work for many days and the result speaks well for their efforts.

The putting greens are being mowed close and rolled each day and three one-horse lawn mowers are now putting the fair greens in splendid shape.

Seventy caddies (including regulars) have been selected and every boy is expected to secure his caddy number this morning at Ledford's book store. No caddies will be allowed on the grounds who do not have their check number. This includes regular caddies as well as new ones.

All caddies having odd number checks will caddie to day. Saturday all caddies with even numbers will caddie. Monday all may be on the grounds, and Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday all caddies must report ready for duty at 8:30 and caddies that are absent will be discharged, unless a reasonable excuse is received from their parents. The caddies are expected to read the rules governing them and violations of these rules will not be tolerated.

The out-of-town teams and individual players are having their rooms reserved at the hotels.

Every club in the association will probably send players in addition to their teams. Springfield expects to have fifteen men entered and Quincy will send not less than ten.

Many players participated in the ladies' golf contest held at the Country club Thursday. It was a qualifying round and the following went over the course: Miss Virginia Hockenhull, Mrs. George Scurlock, Miss Anna Duer, Mrs. Joel Hubbell, Miss Mabel King, Mrs. Charles French, Mrs. Harry Christie and Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe. Several of the players have not played before this season, and considering this fact the scores made were excellent.

Miss Elizabeth Robertson, Miss Kathryn Robertson, Miss May Brown and Miss Louise Huffaker, who are out of the city, expect to hand in scores for the qualifying round and the prospect is for two enthusiastic teams.

President Rutter, of the Central Illinois Golf association, was on the links Thursday and expressed the belief that arrangements could be made so that the local club could secure the tournament of the Ladies' Central Illinois Golf association. This association held its last meet in Springfield two years ago and the championship was won by Miss Elizabeth Robertson, of this city.

Tuesday of next week a ladies' handicap contest will be played, and hereafter a ladies' contest will be arranged each week.

N. Guillaume, a professional golfer of Chicago, arrived in the city Thursday and will give instruction during the tournament of the Central Illinois Golf association. He played over the links in 46 and 43 yesterday and says the course is in good condition. Mr. Guillaume will be remembered by local golf players, as he was here four years ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lillydale, N.Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W.C.T.U., tells how she recovered by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can today thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of my troubles. My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—Mrs. ELIZABETH H. THOMPSON, Box 105, Lillydale, N.Y.—$5.000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

A Lemon Party That Affords Much Amusement.

A novel affair is a lemon party. Here is the way one was recently carried out: Every guest gave a lemon to the servant who opened the door. These were subsequently taken to the kitchen, all the seeds carefully taken out and collected in a small glass jar. The company meanwhile were engaged in various games. When the hostess signaled, the jar was brought in and passed in review before every guest, who made a mental estimate of the number of seeds it contained and recorded his opinion upon a small yellow tablet already furnished him, indorsing his count with his signature. The tablets were afterward collected and the results announced. The winner, who was the one, of course, whose guess came nearest the number of seeds, received a pretty lemonade set, and the "booby" a lemon squeezer ornamented with a yellow bow. Lemon cake, lemon jelly, lemonade and lemon ices constituted the refreshments, and every guest on leaving was presented with a box of lemon drops tied with yellow ribbon.

How to Make a Doll's House.

To furnish a doll's house collect as many corks and bungs as you can and get a few ounces of colored beads all one size, with two or three dozen big ones, a packet of pins, and you have all you want except a small skein of wool. Slice up the corks crosswise to make the seats of the chairs and the table tops. The bungs will do for the sofa seats. Slip half a dozen of the beads on a pin, putting a big one on first of all, and dig the points into the slices of cork to make the chair legs. The chair and sofa backs are made with plain pins, and the wool laces across them from side to side. If you want the furniture to be very grand the cork may be painted with enamel or gilded.

A Royal Band of Pity.

Little Princess Mary of Wales is a clever child, and both she and her brothers are very fond of animals. A favorite amusement of the royal children is to seek out lame or otherwise injured birds and then take them home and nurse them back to health. To do this they form a miniature hospital, and with the love of make believe natural at their years, they then act doctors and nurses till their patients are well enough to be discharged, says Home Notes. Perhaps the next greatest joy to a patient's rapid recovery is his demise, for, like other little people, the royal children find the funeral of a bird or other small creature a most edifying function.

Amuse the Little Invalid.

Boys and girls may amuse a sick brother or sister in the following way: Procure an old newspaper, eight ply, cut dolls twelve inches high with small hole in head. Then arrange small pulley at each end of the room quite high and run strong twine through precisely on the principle of a clothesline, then tie the dolls securely with thread run through the hole on to the pulley line, four at each end, with spaces between, one set on the upper and one on the lower line.

Then by means of a guy rope you can make them jig up and down and float them across the room to the intense delight of the weary little invalid.

Strange Nesting Place.

Some years ago an English track worker left his empty dinner can near the rails, and when he remembered to go back for it he discovered it contained a nest of eggs, right there in all the confusion and crowd of a station and the noise of passing trains. The man was so amused that, to his credit be it said, he gave up his can and left it in charge of the little intruders.

If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. PEOPLE OF THE DAY

General Michitsura Nodzu. One of the most distinguished and brilliant soldiers in the service of the Mikado is Count Michitsura Nodzu, who commands one of the armies of invasion in Manchuria. He was born in the province of Satsuma in 1841 and got his first fighting experience in the Satsuma rebellion.

At the outbreak of the China war Nodzu, who had meanwhile advanced to the rank of lieutenant general, was commanding the Fifth division at Hiroshima. His division was the first to land in Korea and to push on to the Manchurian frontier. When Commander in Chief Marquis Yamagata was recalled after the battle of the Yalu, Nodzu succeeded him and led the army successfully through several engagements to Newchwang. He was promoted to the rank of general while on the field. After the war the emperor created him a count.

He has lately occupied the positions of commander of the eastern division and of inspector general of military education. General Nodzu visited the United States in 1876.

Ideas Barred.

The late Duke of Cambridge looked upon all innovations in army discipline with great suspicion, and it was only with the utmost difficulty that he could be induced to make changes. A story illustrating this is now afloat in London, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. An appointment in the horse guards was vacant, and a certain captain was suggested as suitable. The duke said: "I know his name quite well, but isn't there something against him? Didn't he write a book on the army?" He was assured to the contrary. "I feel sure I heard he had written a book or something," insisted the old man. "Is he one of those fellows who have ideas?"

"Oh, no, your grace; absolutely none," answered the military secretary. "Very well," said the duke, "he may be given the post."

Wedded With Pope's Ring.

In official dignity and churchly splendor the recent wedding of Miss Margaret F. Maloney to L. Carberry Ritchie at Spring Lake, N. J., eclipsed any ceremony of the kind heretofore witnessed in America.

The ring used on the occasion had been blessed by Pope Pius X. and was brought from Rome by Cardinal Satolli, who performed the wedding ceremony, assisted by Bishop McFaul of Trenton. Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia delivered an address. In addition tion to these eminent churchmen there were half a dozen other distinguished members of the clergy present.

Mrs. Ritchie is a daughter of Martin Maloney of Philadelphia, duanetier and street railway magnate. He attained fame and the basis for his immense fortune by inventing the "fish-tail burner" for electric lights.

The presence of so many dignitaries at the wedding was a mark of the gratitude of the church for the philanthropy of the father of the bride, who obtained the title of marquis from Pope Leo XIII. for his generosity. During the last twenty years he has given over a million dollars to forward the charity work of the church. Mr. Ritchie is a young Washington lawyer.

The Proper Costume.

One summer when William Carey was at Narragansett Pier he was invited to a dance where the guests were requested to appear as characters from the Bible, says the New York Times.

The coming party was being discussed at the casino when a young man who was an object of general ridicule because of his habit of padding his legs when in golf costume said to Mr. Carey: "What would you advise me to go as?"

"Oh," answered Mr. Carey, "I think 'the fattest calf' would be about right for you."

CONDENSED STORIES.

How Dean Swift Rebuked a Foppish Printer.

Dean Swift was one day visited by a Dublin printer who had just returned from London and was dressed in a rich coat of silk and gold lace. He seemed so proud of his dress that Swift resolved to humble him. When he entered the room, the printer saluted the dean as an old acquaintance. The dean pretended that he did not know him, said that he was an impostor and bade him leave the house. The printer saw the mistake which he had made and returning home he put on his usual dress. Then he again went to the dean, and this time was warmly welcomed.

"Ah, George," said the dean, "I am so glad to see you, for there has been an impudent fop here in silks and gold lace, who wanted to pass himself off for you, but I knew you to be always a plainly dressed, honest man, just as you are now."

A P. T. Barnum Story.

The late P. T. Barnum used to tell this story: "An Irishman once sat in front of me on a rear seat of an open Broadway car, smoking the 'heel' of a pipe that was not very sweet. A nervous woman, carrying a poodle, boarded the car and sat down in the sole remaining seat on my right and just back of the Irishman, who was smoking hard. She twitched and fumed and finally, with some heat, told the Irishman to desist. He referred her to a seat farther forward, without the confines sacred to smokers. The nervous lady with the poodle squirmed and fidgeted and repeated her demand. The Irishman kept on smoking. Suddenly she leaned forward, snatched the pipe from his hand and threw it into the street.

"The Irishman turned around quickly, but instead of swearing he seized the poodle, patted it and threw it into the street.

"The passengers enjoyed mixed sensations until the poodle relieved the situation by trotting up to the foot rail with the pipe in his mouth."—New York Times.

Knew When to Pray.

Governor A. P. Montague of Virginia is a good story teller as well as a wise and progressive chief magistrate. At Hampton institute he compared the never failing sense of justice between man and man to the unchanging north star and told a story of a sagacious old slave in the "year of the falling stars."

"The negro was on a plantation on an island in the Rappahannock river. On the night of the most terrific meteoric shower the negroes were all assembled on the shore, weeping, shouting, and, above all, praying vociferously. But one old slave, Uncle Caesar by name, off at one side under a pine tree, was making no sound and uttering no prayer. He had rigged a sort of squint with a pole and had it trained on a point in the skies.

By and by one of the other negroes came along and said: "Uncle Caesar, ain't 'bout time you began to pray?" "Not yet," said Caesar; "I got my pole p'inted at de no'th star, an' when dat 'ar begins to fizzle an' fo'ol, den I'm gwine ter git down an' pray—not before!"—New York Mail.

"Where Are We At?"

"Across the river from Clinton, Ia.," says Senator Dolliver of that state, "is the town of Fulton, Ill. From that point the railroad crosses the river over a long bridge.

"It is said that on one occasion, when a train leaving Fulton had halted in its progress over this bridge, being then directly over the center of the stream, a passenger, evidently Celtic of origin, demanded in stentorian tones:

"Mr. Conductor, will you kindly tell me whether we are in this state or in Illinois?"

The SPORTING WORLD

Redfern's Brilliant Riding. Arthur Redfern is riding in the best form of his career this season. Last year he ranked with the top notchers, and he is now eclipsing the most brilliant of his exploits.

Redfern's latest feat was to pilot the $200,000 "picture horse" Hermis to victory in the classic Suburban handicap at Sheephead Bay. He won a stake of $17,000 and $75,000 in bets in that race for his owner, E. R. Thomas, the millionaire sportsman. Redfern is the leading jockey of the Thomas stable and is well worth his salary of $20,000 a year.

JOCKEY REDFERN, WHO WON THE SUBURBAN WITH HERMIS.

Fitz Has the Fight Fever.

"The Grand Old Man" of the prize ring has got the fighting fever again good and hard. Down at Bath Beach, N. Y., Bob Fitzsimmons is "bitting the bit," so to speak, and tugging hard at the chains that bind him to a life of inactivity, because all the heavyweight, light heavyweight and middleweight championship aspirants, who loudly clamor for some one to fight, all crawl into their respective holes and pull the holes in after them when Fitz looms up.

"I dare you to come out and fight!" madly yells the "freedman," but as they all know of the pile driver power behind the old man's wonderful wallop silence reigns supreme. No one takes his dare.

Bob Fitzsimmons is tired of "talking fight" and yearns for "real action." Though McCoy, Ruhlin, Hart and other aspirants for his honors have shown a desire to meet Fitzsimmons, none of them has as yet clinched a battle. Ruby Rob has declared again that he is willing to meet inside of three weeks and in a six round bout in Philadelphia any of the men who declare they are anxious to get at him. The Cornishman is sincere, and it disgusts him that the fighters continually dodge his game after making such a holler for a match with him.

Yachting Pointers.

Among the new racing yachts seen in eastern waters this year are W. Gould Brokaw's Sybarite, purchased abroad and reported to be the fastest yawl ever built in Great Britain. She is one of the prettiest of Designer Watson's many beautiful vessels, and under a new name she will enter the Astor cup race, the long ocean race and other New York Yacht club events. Among the well known yachts that have gone into commission are the eighteen knot Norma, which raced Kanawha off Newport last summer; Mr. Flint's Arcturion, the big three masted Atlantic, back from her long cruise in the Caribbean; the Mindora, Celt, Kismet, the famous old Viking, now an auxiliary; the Lusca, Endymion, Wanderer, Aloha, Narada, Wacouta. Among the American yachts racing abroad this season are Commodore Morton F. Plant's schooner Ingomar. She made the passage from Bristol, R. I., to the Needles in 15 days 9 hours 25 minutes and behaved well the entire trip.

Kiely, Irish Champion.

Thomas F. Kiely, the champion all round athlete of Great Britain and Ireland and the present holder of several English and Irish records, arrived in New York recently. He came to America to take part in the all round championship games at St. Louis.

Kiely has a long record. He captured the Irish championship title every year the event was held, and it was finally abolished when no competitors were forthcoming to oppose the Curric man. He is the holder of eighty championships and the creator of forty records and is the possessor of 1,500 prizes. His best record with the hammer is 151 feet 11 inches from the nine foot circle, and he has slung the fifty-five pound weight 38 feet 11 inches with one hand, which is the world's record.

Kiely's native place is Ballyneal, near Carrick-on-Suir, County Tipperary. He is thirty years of age, stands six feet one inch and tips the scale at 190 pounds and has a chest measurement of forty-two inches.

The Trotting Race Season.

Secretaries of grand circuit tracks are commencing to announce the classes for the purse races, an indication that the opening of the harness season on the big line is near at hand. Some few of the horses that will be seen in select society later on have already commenced to race on the half mile tracks, and these should be ready to meet even the much touted southern trained ones. If a horse can be raced on the half mile tracks thus early in the year without being injured, there is no reason why the high priced race horses should not compete with each other, and there should be little danger of injuring them if the races are on the two in three plan.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, July 14.—Wheat—Large trade, excited and irregular market, final figures showing July up 1/2c, September 3/4c higher. There was a rush of buying at the start, while offerings were moderate and the price advanced rapidly. Weather was unfavorable, cables were higher and crop news from the west decidedly bullish. At the advanced stage quantities of long prompt contracts came out and liquidation became general, causing material reaction. Selling of new and old July and buying of September was a late feature.

Corn—Fair trade, higher prices ruling early, followed by weaker tone, closing prices being 3/4c lower for July, while September lost 1/2c. Stronger start was due chiefly to upturn in wheat, commission houses being principal buyers. Professionals and elevator interests sold. More rain reported west, but settled conditions predicted.

Oats—Oats were active and the rush to buy at the start carried prices up 1/2c, which was followed by a drop of 1/4c and a close at almost bottom, net loss of 1/2c on all except May. There was a scare on July due to contract stocks being down to 105,000 bushels.

FINANCIAL NEWS.
New York, July 14.—To day's stock market was similar to yesterday's as to extent strength and weakness were discernible in its side by side profit-taking in being offset by new advance in a number. Some incongruity was recognized in the simultaneous advance in price of Union Pacific and Northern Securities, which occurred yesterday on rumor of probable decision in the Northern Securities case which must necessarily be to the advantage of one party at the cost of the other. Speculative nature of yesterday's movement in those stocks thus strongly pointed to increased disposition to sell them and to take profits. A blunt announcement from the president of the Northern Securities company of skepticism of the government's wheat crop estimate as far too liberal and a frank admission from the president of the Atlantic of serious damage to the crop wrought by rains caused serious attention to be given that important question. A violent rise in wheat was an additional warning and the government's report on condition of foreign crops did not reveal the amount of damage there that has been held to account for recent strength in our wheat markets. Pull of somewhat the poor comparison with last year made by domestic exports. The market closed irregular and slightly above lowest as follows:

Money on call, 1/4 to 1/2 per cent, closing bid, 1/2 offered at 1/2. Time money, 60 days, 1/2 to 1/2; 90 days, 1/2 to 1/2; 6 months, 1/2 to 1/2.

ONE LADY'S RECOMMENDATION SOLD FIFTY BOXES OF CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS.

"Yes, your honor," replied the blushing little lady.

"Well, now, tell me the plain facts in the case. What didn't he do?"

No Comparison.

"I have had one suit in court ten years," remarked the man with the bulging brow.

"That's not a circumstance," replied the young man with the open face. "I've had the same suit in court with fifteen different girls, one after the other. And it's getting mighty threadbare," he added, with a pensive sigh.—Chicago Tribune.

"Do you like cherries?" asked the kindly farmer.

"Sometimes," replied Weary Walker cautiously.

"Only sometimes, eh?"

"Yeh, I like 'em fine when they're already picked."—Brooklyn Eagle.

ECHOES FROM THE WAR

Russian Convicts Asked to Join the Army.

CHANCES TO REDUCE SENTENCES

Two Months of Active Service to Count as a Year of Penal Servitude or May Earn Full Pardon—Japanese Women's Work for the Soldiers. War Prisoners Well Treated by Russians.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Volks Zeitung informs his paper that Russia has invited its convicts to join the army in the far east.

The following are the conditions offered the convicts by Admiral Alexeiev, says a Berlin cable dispatch to the Chicago Inter Ocean:

"First.—Each period of two months' active service performed by a convict shall count as a year of penal servitude, to be deducted from his sentence, and those among the convicts who take part in any action against the enemy will be immediately admitted into the class of colonists. Further, colonists who live in the prisons will be transferred to the division of convicts who are allowed to live outside the prison walls.

"Second.—Prisoners in the division of correction and detention will have remitted a year of their sentence for each four months of service with the army.

"Third.—For convicts who on the completion of their terms are to be registered as peasants, one month's service will count as four months as colonists.

"Fourth.—Colonist peasants will have the right to choose a domicile in any province of the empire, apart from the capitals, with the restoration of all their civil rights, except that of owning property.

"The application of these privileges is entrusted to the governor of Sakhalin, who will have to take into consideration the certificates of good conduct granted by subordinate heads of convict establishments. All brilliant feats of arms will be reported to me in order that I may reduce the punishment of the convict distinguishing himself and, in exceptional cases, report them to the emperor to obtain a full pardon for the author of the achievement."

The earnest, hardworking women of the Red Cross society are working diligently making bandages for the hospitals, cholera belts for the soldiers, and many have already begun knitting against next winter's wants—knitting vests, stockings and the same sort of capuchin or toboggan hoods that the British women knit by thousands for the troops in South Africa, says Eliza R. Scidmore, the Chicago Tribune correspondent in Japan.

The stocking that goes to the front is a straight, easy piece of knitting without a heel, and to my amazed joy the Japanese soldier likes it that way best. When there is a hole where the heel has been he turns the hole around on top and enjoys a new stocking, or, if it is long enough, he cuts it off and ties the ends together in a bag again.

Phinices and court women, commoners and schoolgirls are all preparing to knit the summer through for the soldiers, and many foreign women are knitting with enthusiasm now and promising to make a record.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch's correspondent at Tomsk, south Siberia, who was permitted by the governor to visit the places where the Japanese prisoners of war are kept, says there are about 700 in all, and both men and officers say that they are well treated. All the prisoners signed a petition in which they asked the Russian government to be allowed to return home on condition that they will not bear arms against Russia in this war. The petition was forwarded to the czar. Russia pays the prisoners the following sums: Generals, 125 rubles a month; staff officers, 57 rubles a month; minor officers, 50 rubles. A ruble is about equal to 35 cents. Common soldiers receive 10 kopecks, about 8 cents, per day.

The men are quartered in an abandoned monastery and in stables that have been cleaned and furnished with bunks. The common soldiers are paid daily and have appointed one of their number to buy their provisions. They will not eat the black bread of the country and buy only white bread, which is a luxury in Tomsk. Even the Russians admit that the Japs are miracles of cleanliness and good order. The officers have been lodged in the army clubhouses. There are about fifty among the 700. There is no sign of barbarism. Tomsk is a city of 60,000 inhabitants and is regarded as healthy.

WILL TRY TO BREAK RECORD

Ship Minnesota Will Sail From New York to Pacific Coast Against Oregon's Time.

New York, July 14.—Much interest is felt by shipping men in the forthcoming voyage of the big Great Northern freighter Minnesota to the Pacific coast, in which it is generally believed she will attempt to break the record made by the battleship Oregon.

The Minnesota is one of the two largest merchant steamers ever built in America and is intended for the James J. Hill orient trade. She will leave the latter part of this month.

Newport News, Va., where she is to fill up with bunker coal, will be the Minnesota's last North Atlantic calling port. The immense size of the ship and the belief that she is faster than the builders are willing to admit are responsible for the opinion among steamship men that all records will be broken.

The Oregon made her historic run from San Francisco to Key West in sixty-eight days, but made calls at Valparaiso, Rio de Janeiro, Bahia, Para and Barbadoes for coal.

Adding about two days for the run from Key West to Newport News, the time which the Minnesota has to beat is seventy days.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Miss Ursula Mae Fawcett entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fawcett, on North Church street, a few little friends of the neighborhood in honor of her little cousin, Gerald Fawcett, of Chicago. The little folks enjoyed a merry time playing games and eating cream and cake were served.

Those present were: Gerald Fawcett, Ivan Smith, Helen Jackson, Aletha Brown, Frank Brough, Audley Brough, Mildred Henderson, Isola Jacoby, Whitney Swingle, Harold Dunlap, Francis Leek, Ursula Mae Fawcett.

AUTOMOBILE CAUSES TEAM TO RUNAWAY

Horace Fairchild Severely Injured on South Diamond St.—Taken to Hospital—Chaffeur Rode Gaily on.

Horace W. Fairchild was severely injured about 7 o'clock Thursday evening on South Diamond street. His team became frightened at an automobile driven by George Wolke and ran away.

Mr. Fairchild was returning from work with his hay wagon and was driving north in front of the residence of E. A. Williams. Mr. Wolke was coming south at a moderate pace. The farm horses, being unaccustomed to such strange machines, took fright and began to run. The spectators were uncertain as to exactly how Mr. Fairchild fell, but it is supposed that when the wagon struck the curb he was thrown in front of it and became entangled in the lines. He was dragged over the brick pavement about fifteen feet. The horses kept going and ran into a telephone pole a few hundred feet up the street.

The neighbors ran to the man's assistance and lifted him onto the boulevard. Although he did not lose consciousness it was seen at once that he was seriously hurt. He was placed in a passing wagon containing some loose hay and taken to his home, 228 West Morton avenue. From there he was removed to Passavant hospital, where Drs. Edward Bowe, David Reid and J. W. Hairgrove were in attendance. It was found that his right arm was fractured near the shoulder and his left arm near the wrist. His face and head were badly lacerated and his body terribly bruised.

This is the first bad accident in this city caused by automobiles.

A Chicago woman declares that a man will eat anything his wife cooks if he loves her. This being the case, a good many of our leading ladies have pretty good cause for being suspicious of their husbands.

ALTON OFFICIALS HERE THURSDAY

Will Increase Switching Facilities at the Junction—Much Speculation Regarding Visit.

C. P. Bemis, trainmaster, and I. R. Cook, assistant engineer of the Alton, were in the city Thursday and aroused considerable speculation regarding the rumored changes in the C. & A. yards.

The switching facilities are very poor and it is known that they have been unsatisfactory to the officials of the road for some time. The heavy switching caused by the increased traffic is badly hindered by the crossings of the Wabash and the Burlington. It is nearly impossible for a long freight to switch without interfering with one of these roads or blockade the East State street crossing.

Mr. Bemis was interviewed by a Journal representative. He was very non-committal, but intimated that extensive changes were contemplated in the yards. He said that the sidings would be moved over farther east with enough room between to permit the passage of wagons. Several of the switches are to be lengthened and straightened. On this account Cooper & Gillman were compelled to move their ice house down into the next block. These improvements will aid materially the handling of the large freight traffic.

Mr. Bemis spent the greater part of the afternoon riding over the ground near the stock yards north of the city with Charles Gillman and Charles Cooper. The object of their drive was to buy land near there in order to lay another long siding and probably to build a "Y" or turntable. William Nunes and others owning property in that vicinity were seen relative to selling their land.

For some time the Alton has been using the C. P. & St. L. turntable and it is understood that some disagreement arose. The old Alton turntable near the junction was temporarily repaired, but does not give satisfaction. This, together with the need of a long cattle switch is the reason for the land buying.

The strip of land leased by Cooper & Gillman between East State street and East College avenue, on the east side of the tracks, is also to be improved. Drain tile will be laid and the roadway probably paved.

Mr. Cook while here did not take any measurements, but a force of civil engineers were here Wednesday and took extensive measurements and levels along the right of way, both north and south. From appearances their work is not complete and they may return soon to finish.

The recent visit of the officials of the road, together with the increased activity of the engineers and yard men gives rise to the belief that starting developments may take place before fall. The building on the property bought recently by the Alton on East College avenue has been torn down. The purchase of property this far south must mean something and cannot be explained by the argument that more switching room is needed. This would not be used as yards from the fact that it is considerably below the level of the roadbed and that the crossing of the Burlington is but a few feet away, which would be a drawback to easy switching. It has been said that a station may be built here, and the grade, which reaches its highest point at the Wabash crossing, cut down so as to go below the East State street and Wabash crossings. This could be done as the grade rises from the south and falls to the north and the situation would be admirable for a station.

The definite plans of the company are not known, but developments will be awaited with interest.

One of the puzzling things that a woman with brains never solves satisfactorily to herself is the ease with which the woman without brains gets along, and the success she has in securing a rich and desirable husband.

Many women grab the home paper and eagerly scan its columns anxious to find a complimentary notice of themselves. Many more women look just as eagerly to find something in the paper about their neighbor.
